

Love All Things Herbal?

Join the San Antonio Herb Society!

Who We Are:

The San Antonio Herb Society was formed in 1983 with the goals of sharing knowledge in planting, growing, harvesting and using herbs in our kitchens, our gardens, and our lives.

Currently, the SAHS has over 130 members. The society participates in many area gardening events throughout the year, including the Herb Market in October. We also support the herb gardens at the San Antonio Botanical Center .

Our Programs:

The monthly meetings of the SAHS always feature interesting speakers and programs. We've hosted Mark Blumenthal, internationally acclaimed advocate of herbal medicine and founder and executive director of the American Botanical Council, and Jeanne Rose, international authority on the therapeutic uses of herbs. We've also featured Howard Garrett, The Dirt Doctor, authority on organic gardening. We've had many popular local chefs including Theiry Burkle, Ralph Herrmann, Jay McCarthy, and Bruce Auden, as well as nationally known authors Madalene Hill and Gwen Barclay, (Southern Herb Growing), and herbal mystery writer Susan Witting Albert. There have been other experts in their field including Lucia Bettler of Lucia's Garden in Houston and Bill and Sylvia Varney, owners of the Fredericksburg Herb Farm. Please join us!

How much does it cost to be a member?

Membership dues are $25 for individuals, $35 for a family membership, and $40 for a Business Membership. Business members have their business name published in the newsletter each month and featured on our website.

Programs begin at 7:00 on the second Thursday of the month (with refreshments served at 6:30) at the San Antonio Garden Center, corner of Funston and N. New Braunfels. The meetings are free and open to the Public.
